Senior Community Celebrates 50 Years of Service to the Community

Episcopal Senior Communities Set to Honor Residents, Staff and Supporters at its Spring Lake Village Location

(Santa Rosa, Calif., April 16, 2015) --- Episcopal Senior Communities is celebrating its 50th anniversary of service to seniors in the local community by honoring the lives of all its residents, staff and supporters with a party and short program on April 17, 2015 from 4-6pm. Santa Rosa Mayor John Sawyer and council members, Ernesto Olivares and Julie Combs will be in attendance.

Episcopal Senior Communities (ESC) is a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization dedicated to helping seniors maintain healthy, vibrant and independent lives. Through their many initiatives and non-profit efforts, including the ElderWISE program, Senior Resources @ Home, Senior Center Without Walls, and the Senior Produce Markets, ESC is providing valuable services that alleviate isolation and promote healthy lifestyles.

Spring Lake Village opened its doors in 1986 and is a vibrant community of seniors enjoying apartment homes and cottages clustered around 30 acres of beautiful Santa Rosa countryside. The community provides assisted living, Maggie's Place for memory care, a full- service health care center and has easy access to all that Sonoma and Napa wine country has to offer.

Media are encouraged to attend this special celebration, take photos and speak directly with the seniors who have benefitted from ESC's many community initiatives.
